The Finest Palazzzi for Rental in Venice

PIANO NOBILE DEGLI SCUDI
Grand Canal, Venice

Piano Nobile degli Scudi

In a wonderfully commanding position opposite the Palazzo Grassi Museum of Modern Art and between the Accademia Bridge/Galleries and the Ca' Rezzonico Museum of 18th Century Art, the apartment lies within the 15th Century Gothic Palazzo Loredan Dell'Ambasciatore - historic address of the ambassadors of the Austrian Empire to the Venetian Republic, birthplace of two ancient Doges of Venice and notable palace where Mozart once played.

Furnishings throughout are a much-loved miscellany of 17th-19th Century family antiques intelligently integrated alongside modern and classic pieces and decorative features. Sofas crafted by Florentine artisans are upholstered using traditional Venetian cloths while the description of room finishes reads like a Who's Who of the very best in international interior design in which gorgeous Zoffany and Brunswick wallpapers rub shoulders with sumptuous Fortuny fabrics and Farrow & Ball paints.

Bedrooms

There are three en-suite double bedrooms and an en-suite twin - the first in a soothing blend of soft Wedgwood blues and milky whites, the second in fanciful bird and blossom print, the third a delight in delicate dusky pinks and the twin, a Marco Polo fantasy of oriental Toile de Jouy, objet d'art and Chinese blues and lacquer reds in which two single canopied beds sit beneath a pretty vaulted ceiling.

Receptions

Regal yet comfy and tall ceilinged sitting room - a space bedecked in rich golden fabrics where 18th Century Venetian mirrors in gold leaf sit beside plump teal blue velvet-soft sofas and an intriguing collection of cherished antiques. To the left of the salone sits the main dining room also fronting the Grand Canal - a vision of Venetian poise and elegance where the formal table for twelve requests the pleasure of your company within its rich deep red walls. The breakfast room beyond seats eight and is perfect for more informal dining, while the adjoining deluxe contemporary kitchen features bespoke brushed oak units and top-notch accoutrements alongside an original 15th Century fireplace lain hidden for centuries and uncovered to our delight during the recent restoration. At the rear of the Piano Nobile and overlooking the garden is a further comfortable sitting room - a cosy, classic counterpoint to the formal salone.

Garden

A gorgeous leafy garden.

The stunning fairy tale Venetian Gothic windows open directly onto a long marble balcony overlooking the Grand Canal.
